NOTES

<sup>8</sup> 258 is the total from the published list and its addenda. Simms and Van der Krogt — in their “A Short History and a Bibliography of Papers” (<http://www.explokart.eu/ichc/2003.html>) — record a total of 321 but without details.

<sup>9</sup> There are discrepancies between the lists issued to participants (alphabetically and by country) and that left on the conference website (<http://www.ichc2009.dk/list.pdf> – as of March 2016, this website seems to be no longer available). The totals should therefore be considered as approximate.

<sup>10</sup> The full total includes late registrants for whom no details are available as to their origin.
